

App Center

- Mouseover to view the menu
- Indicates whether an update is available.
- Indicates whether the device is connected.
- Sign in to view the secured apps
- Click to install the apps

Home Page

- Click to view app walk-through
- Home page has tiles that links to various features. Click on any tile to perform appropriate actions.

Device Connectivity

- Indicates whether the device is connected.
- Click here to monitor I2C activity.
- If the device is not auto connected, use this button to connect.

I2C Monitor

Slave	Direction	Address	Data
98	W	00	00
98	R	76	01
98	W	00	31
98	W	f0	7d 52 b3 00 7c cc 97 00 7d

This icon is used to record & pause the I2C commands.

These icons are used to save, delete, copy the I2C commands respectively.

This field is used to filter the I2C commands by slave address.

Snapshot & Audio Player

Click here to take a snapshot of the current state.

Click here to capture the current state of the audio playing in audio player.

Tuning History Navigator

Click here to overwrite the existing snapshot.

When there are too many yellow bubbles use this option to clear all the bubbles but retain the snapshots.

Bubbles with numbers represent the snapshots. Upto 5 snapshots are allowed at a time.

Give a short description to remember the device state.

Hold shift & click on any yellow bubble to see the differences between the blue and the red

The current device state. Press ctrl+z or click on any yellow bubble to restore the device to that state.

TI Uncaught Exception Window

Let TI know about this issue and help them fix it by clicking Yes.